Attorney At Law, 445 Walker St. Augusta, GA.
706 724-2640, for a "FREE" Chapter 13 -
Bankruptcy Consultation, after Consultation
I paid 200.00 down, on a 403.00 Charge to File the Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, the following week in January 2021, I paid the remainder amount of 203.00, in which paid the Amount of 403.00
Attorney D. Clay Ward, requested to File Chapter 13 - Come to find out By another Local Bankruptcy Attorney to File a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy in the Federal Courts, is only 310.00 or 315.00 and Attorney D. Clay Ward Charge me 88.00

Should have been paid, in which it was, I told Attorney D. Clay Ward, not to File the Chapter and will not be filed, upon my request by phone, and written letter to Attorney D. Clay Ward, I told Attorney D. Clay Ward I will write the Federal District Court, asking the "Chief Judge" J. Randal Hall, to look into this matter on getting my refund, over those Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, I stop to proceed with MR. Attorney D. Clay Ward, replied too me, I Don't care who you write, I'm not give you the Filing Fee refund, Sir my question is how can an Attorney or anyone keep monies that's would have been paid to the Federal Bankruptcy Courts, for filing a Chapter 13, and it has been stopped, by my own request, and it has not been filed, I can bring or send you Bank-transaction, were these monies of $403.<sup>00</sup> was drawn from my Peach State Credit Union Debit Card, January 2021, from the Listed above Attorney office, in two withdrawls, I don't see any fairness in this situation, that's why SER you been appointed "Chief Judge" to bring relief in matters like this.

God Bless!
Respectfully yours
